New Partnership with Rhenus Closes the Cycle of Document Logistics

- Strategic cooperation of two market leaders for document and information management
- Mutual support enables customers to ideally manage their document cycle
- Rhenus Office Systems as an expert for paper documents, EASY SOFTWARE manages digital files

In a strategic partnership, EASY SOFTWARE and Rhenus Office Systems agreed to support the respective partner company with their own core competencies.

This cooperation provides customers of both companies with the optimum all-round solution for their document management - both in digital and paper form. The holistic and GDPR-compliant approach of the "document lifecycle" simplifies planning and decision-making processes on the customer side. The competence and long-time experience of both partners offer customers high-level solutions that are perfectly coordinated to each other and enable a fast return on investment (ROI).

The target audiences and customer groups of both companies overlap to a large extent, which has already resulted in successful joint customer projects in the past.

Rhenus Office Systems is part of the Rhenus Group, a family-owned company with annual sales of EUR 5.5 billion and 33,000 employees. Rhenus Office Systems stands for innovative document and information logistics and provides services for over 15,000 clients in Germany and abroad. With core competencies in scanning, archiving, disposing and managing paper documents, Rhenus Office Systems ideally complements the digital range of services offered by EASY.
